NOV 1

Dear Hilda:

Whodathunkit! Me on those shelves.
(there'll be more, by the way; have two others in process now). Anyway, I'm flattered, and will send the autoed copy in a few days--we just received a shipment...Appreciate the notices in the newsletter and Bulletin.

Dear Nate:

A wonderful idea, gathering all that sparkling writing into one book. We put your DOWN EAST READER on our order list at once, and have already called it to the attention of librarians in our newsletter. We'll note it in the Bulletin of the Maine Library Association, too.

Now: how about an inscribed copy for the Maine Author Collection?

Sincerely yours

Dear Nate:-

Official thanks and personal enthusiasm for THE DOWN EAST READER. It's nice to know there will be additional collections, and we hope you'll be encouraged by its reception.
Coming at this time, it ought to be a natural for the Christmas trade.

Good luck to it.

Sincerely yours

Dear Nate:

Thank you for faithfully remembering the Maine Author Collection. We are delighted to welcome Dud Sinker, and regard him with affectionate respect for the qualities he represents and implies.

Tell Dud we'll be looking for him along the coast this summer, and we hope you're keeping notes so that there will be further reports.

Sincerely

(Hilda)

Dear Nate:

You are faithful, and we are appreciative. The new book of sketches by Paule Loring is charming. I hope the summer trade is taking to these books with enthusiasm. It's pretty simple to snatch a page from this type of binding and slip it into a frame (a thought to give any librarian tremors!).

It is a very attractive collection, and we are delighted to add it to the Maine Author Collection. Thank you very much.

Sincerely yours
